Henry S. Baird Lodge No. 174 F. & A.M

Sturgeon Bay, WI 54235

March 2013

Dear Brethren,

Please keep in your prayers the families of Br. George Leu PM and Br Roger Meikle who passed away in February.

Back at end of January, we had our school of instruction and I think it went well. Thank you to all the brothers who were in attendance.

Well, it's that time of year again, spring is just about here and so is the Steamboat dinner. Keep selling tickets. On Friday March 8th, we will be getting things set up. If you can help out, please stop by, Afterwards, we will go out to eat as we always do. Let Tom know if you will be there. We will be going to the Cabin on Bay shore drive at 6:00 PM.

Also in March, we will be having the Lodge building open to the public on Saturday the 16th during the Saint Patrick's Day parade. We will be serving coffee, Hot chocolate, and cookies.

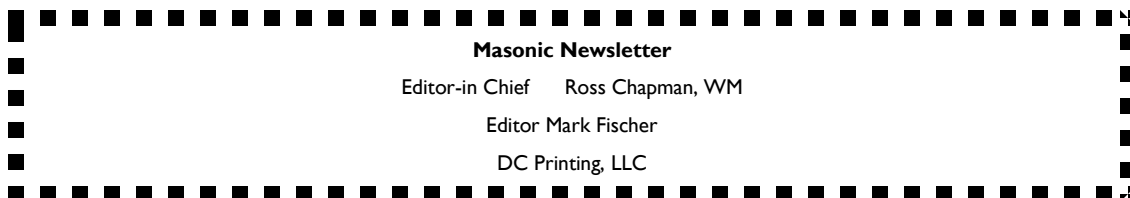

Don't forget Thursday, March 21 when we will honor Past Masters, Past Matrons and those from the community who help out with the Steamboat dinner. Voices of the Crucifixion will be put on after the meal.

Remember that lodge is the second and fourth Thursdays of the month with dinner at 5:30. Your lady is always welcome at the meal.

I also want to thank Bob Kurth for putting up the sign on the building and for fixing the soffit at the same time.

Until next time,

Ross Chapman WM

March 2013

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

It's PIE time! Once again we are arranging for pies for the Steamboat Dinner on March 9th. If you wish to donate actual home baked pies, please give me a call or e-mail me as to what you are making: cherry, apple or pumpkin. If you instead wish to make a cash donation, please send your checks made out to Honor Chapter to my attention at 6866 Cabots Point Rd, Sturgeon Bay WI 54235.

The Lodge also needs your help in selling tickets. Contact Tom Pinney for tickets; you can always return unsold tickets. Ask neighbors, members of your congregation, family, friends.... Be sure to buy for yourself!

If you can help that day, Tom will be glad to assign you a job! Contact him.

Keep warm!

Bonnie L. Kohn
Secretary

Help out with Pizza making for DI; March 1, 2013 – we will again be helping Destination Imagination (DI) fundraising by pre-making pizza rounds that will then be cooked and sold at DI. Contact Ed (920-737-3166 920-737-3166) or Mark (920-495-9034 920-495-9034) if you can help on Friday night 3/1. This is an easy task that took us less than 2 hours last year and provides a nice little income for DI. The supplies are paid for by our fund raising efforts bagging groceries at ECONO Foods.

Steamboat Dinner pre-pre setup; March 2, 2103 9-11AM – As we did last year, the Saturday before the Steamboat Dinner we will be doing some initial setup of the lodge and dining room. This is the pre-setup to the pre-setup we do on Friday. PLEASE come help. It is easy work and will not take more than a couple hours. Ed is buying lunch for those who come to help; join us at 9am on 3/2!!!!

Voices of the Crucifixion: An Easter Dialogue

Written by Theodore E. Torok

Voices of the Crucifixion is a dramatization; a portrait of the events and emotions surrounding Easter week. The play explores Easter from the point of view of four key characters. These characters present a study in contrasts:— Pilate, vain and haughty; Caiaphas, scheming and devious; Judas, businesslike and practical to a fault; and Peter, filled with remorse, and not a little intimidated by the responsibilities thrown upon him by the death of Christ. It is this interplay of contrasts—coupled with the contrition each of the characters feels at somehow having failed on the most important day in human existence—that provides entertainment, inspiration, and contemplation long after the sound of the final lines has faded.

The dialogue Voices of the Crucifixion was two years in preparation and involved considerable research using many resources. The principal reference volume, of course, was the Bible; but a large measure of the descriptive passages come from Jim Bishop's excellent treatise, The Day Christ Died. Although some of the conversations and happenings are conjecture, they are based on and represent the most widely accepted conclusions espoused by some of today's most respected theological historians. Early historians, for instance, present Judas as skulking, secretive, and furtive. However, more recent thinking holds that he was probably quite pragmatic, officious and ambitious, but disillusioned that Christ was not the "flaming chariot" type of Savior the Jewish world expected.

It is interesting to note the eventual demise of our four protagonists. Judas' fate is noted in the dramatization, hanging himself even before Christ died. Peter, however, who successfully led the church through its early beginnings, was later crucified; head downward at his own request, so that his death would not be likened to the death of his Lord. The other two met their downfall only three years after the events described in the play. Pilate, probably at the instigation of Caiaphas, made war on the "untouchable" Samaritans, bringing down the wrath of the Syrian governor. After being recalled to Rome to answer for his misdeeds, he committed suicide. Pilate's successor, Vitellius, removed Caiaphas from the office of high priest and installed Annas' son. There is no record of Caiaphas after he fell into disfavor. Thus, except for Peter the three protagonists strutted unknowingly onto the world stage to advance their own ends, and faded into oblivion while leaving us to revile them and their infamy for all time to come.
